WORLD'S CHAMPS WIN FROM CHICAGO CUBS

Hughes Pitches Brilliant Game and His Teammates Hit Hard Behind Him.

BOSTON, Sept. 11.—The Chicago White Sox and the Boston Red Sox went eleven innings of tense situations, starting plays and timely hits to a Boston victory. Five runs to four today, Boston had tied Chicago's three-run lead by a ninth inning rally. The game was marked by frequent alterations over decisions and by a din of horn blowing and shouting from grand stand and bleachers never equalled in this city except in a world series contest.

TENNIS

Championship of City is Won by McAdams in Final at Country Club.

R. F. McAdams, manager of the local office of the Central Telephone Company, is the tennis champion of Clarksburg. He won that distinction by defeating George L. Bradford in the final of the tennis tournament played on the country club courts Saturday afternoon. The score was 4-6, 6-4, 6-4. Mr. McAdams will in the near future be presented with a loving cup given by the country club. The cup is now in the hands of jewelers, who are inscribing the name of the champion upon it.

In the semi-finals, which were also played Saturday afternoon, McAdams defeated Osman E. Swartz, while Hurst Koblegard defaulted to Bradford.

The first games of the tournament were played Labor day, when all players were eliminated with the exception of the four contesting in Saturday's semi-finals.

DRIVERS INJURED.
HAMLINE, Minn., Sept. 11.—Three drivers in the automobile races at the state fair were injured this afternoon, one seriously.

GEORGE PITCHES REDS TO VICTORY OVER GIANTS

Killifer and Rodgers Hit Mathewson Hard at Opposite Times.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 11.—New York was unable to score off of George, while Cincinnati hit Mathewson hard at opportune times and won the first game of the series 4 to 0. George pitched good ball and fielded his position well. Killifer and Rodgers hit well and divided the runs made between them.

DOLAN'S TRIPPLE WINS GAME FOR BROOKLYN

After Giving Brooklyn a Score He Drives in Run and Scores Winning One.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 11.—After making an error which gave Brooklyn the first run in the ninth inning of today's game, Dolan came up in St. Louis' half of this inning and with Long on first, tripped to the left field fence, trying the score. He scored a few minutes later on Gonzales' long drive to nixon, giving the locals a hard fought victory over Brooklyn 2 to 1.

WESLEYAN PLAYERS ARE GIVEN SIGNALS AND PLAYERS ARE LINED UP FOR THE 1915 SEASON.

TERRA ALTA, Sept. 11.—Signals were given the Wesleyan football squad for the first time today and the first line-up for 1915 shows the names of but two men who were students at Wesleyan during the last year and both of these were scrubs. Springer and Curtis were placed at ends, Fallon and Wagner at tackles, Sheels and Swan at guards, Harvey at center, Blake at quarter, Burnside at full and Beck and Crawford at the halves. This line-up went through almost an hour of signal drill and all the other exercises that have been introduced during the week were rehearsed. Lewis and Allen were excused from today's work. Springer is one of the most likely looking men who has been shown up at the Wesleyan camp this year. He weighs 190 pounds, has exceptionally good action and will make a strong bid for a line position.

ACCIDENTS MAR RACES.
LUDLOW, Ky., Sept. 11.—One of the entrants in the recent Indianapolis races drove his car into a fence to avoid a collision with another machine. His injuries may prove fatal. Sid Huggald in the three mile skidded into a fence and Billy Purcell ran his car over an embankment while waiting on.

IN SEVEN OF THE TEN ROUNDS AND IS GIVEN THE DECISION

VARSITY GETTING READY FOR GAME WITH PENN

First Game of the Season Will Be Played in Philadelphia September 25.

MORGANTOWN, Sept. 11.—After ten full days of training at Mt. Chateau in the Cheat mountains, thirty-five West Virginia football men have been started towards the perfection of plays to be used by varsity against the University of Pennsylvania in the opening game at Philadelphia on September 26. Head Coach Metzger, a former Pennsylvania coach and captain, is guiding the destinies of what promises to be the greatest football machine turned out at West Virginia since the days of "Hurry-Up" Yost. Coach Metzger is being assisted by Ex-Captain Elzie Tobin of Penn State who has charge of the backfield men and ends and Mont M. McIntire, ex-West Virginia captain, and who deserved the distinction of coaching the first football team in the state to beat West Virginia. McIntire is looking after the line and he has two men for every position. The line will average close up to 180 pounds while the backfield will average at least 175 pounds and possibly more.

Two practice sessions are being held daily at the training camp and strict training rules went into effect Wednesday. Three scrimmages were held this week and the Varsity displayed remarkable form for so early in the season. Emerson, a 1915 punting and passing fullback arrived today and he will fight it out with Bill Steadman, another candidate weighing 186 pounds, who stands six feet camp Saturday noon, going to Morgantown to get ready for the opening of college Monday. West Virginia is going to Philadelphia with the intentions to even up old scores with Penn and expect to return with a well earned victory. Penn is expected to be stronger in all departments the coming season but West Virginia expects to be stronger in the same proportions. Only two men were lost from last year's team so it will practically be an old team that meets Pennsylvania September 25. The coaches and players alike are confident of a great year here and are working hard to reach that end.

BRAVES ARE IN SECOND PLACE

Win from Cubs, While Dodgers Drop Game to the Cardinals.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—Philadelphia and Boston, leaders respectively in the National and American Leagues, maintained their advantage by winning their games today. The most important development was in the National League, where Brooklyn, by losing, changed places again with Boston, who won, the former going into third position. Boston now has one point advantage over Brooklyn.

In the American League both Boston and Detroit won their games. By defeating Pittsburgh in its invasion of the western camps, Philadelphia apparently justified the confidence of Manager Moran that his team would give a good account of itself while on the road. Its success today made five straight victories. It now has a lead of three and one-half games over the Braves and four and a half games over the Superbas. Brooklyn, by losing at St. Louis in the first game of its western series, seemed to throw the contention of close followers of the game that it was not so good on the road, while the Braves, true to forecasts, showed that the West had no terrors for them. They easily downed Chicago.

The Boston Americans, playing at home, came dangerously close to shortening their lead when they allowed Chicago to gain a big early advantage and were forced to play an uphill struggle, succeeding in turning the tables in their favor in eleven innings, and thereby holding their advantage. The Tigers made a successful invasion of the Yankees' camp, but were forced to extend themselves to down the New York team, which was always threatening.

Both missed left swings. Packey sent straight left to face and swung right to face. Gibbons cantering right to body. Packey crossed hard right to the j.w. and Gibbons hooked right to head. Each landed heavily. Struck left to the body, and they resorted to hard infighting. Gibbons booked right and left to "head" Packey did his share of the leading.

McFarland Finishes Strong, Taking Both the ninth and Tenth Rounds.

PACKEY INSULTS MIKE

And Both Fighters Try to Make It a Finish Fight.

RINGSIDE, BRIGHTON BEACH, Sept. 11.—Before the largest crowd that ever witnessed a boxing match in this country, Mike Gibbons, of St. Paul, outpointed Packey McFarland, of Chicago, in a ten round, no decision contest here tonight. The bout, which brought together two of the cleverest boxers in the ring today, was hard fought from start to finish. McFarland showed that his long absence from the ring had dulled his speed and power to snap punches to vulnerable points of his opponent's head and body. McFarland showed flashes of his old rapid fire, but the leads were little more than snaps and did not check Gibbons in his more effective assault. McFarland appeared nervous when he entered the ring and was not as finely conditioned as his opponent. The St. Paul phantom immediately took the aggressive and showed that he intended to make a fight of it instead of a sparring exhibition. There was power behind almost every blow that he landed and the round little difficulty in beating the Stock Yards boxer in the punch. For the first four rounds Gibbons was always in the lead, playing alternately for the head and body. In the fifth McFarland took the aggressive and, being thoroughly warmed up, fought desperately to stem the tide of defeat. Gibbons met him half way, however, and the best Chicago boxer could get was an even break in this round. Mike increased his speed in the sixth and scored the majority of effective blows. McFarland made a striking play for Gibbons' body, but the latter covered so well that few of the blows reached their objective.

Packey let loose in the seventh and rained a shower of blows to Gibbons' face, one of which split the St. Paul boxer's left eye brow. McFarland tried to outslug his opponent in the next period, but although the latter was beginning to weaken he staggered Packey with several blows to the head and still maintained his lead.

McFarland came up with a smile in the eighth and fought with his old confidence. He outboxed and outpunched Gibbons and continued his advantage in the final round, being strong at the finish and master of his opponent. The long lead that Gibbons had gained in the earlier rounds, however, was too great to be overcome and the consensus of opinion was strongly in favor of the St. Paul boxer as the winner on points of the largest purse ever offered for so short and undecisive a bout.

A throng which was estimated at 45,000 witnessed the contest, almost entirely filling the immense arena which originally enclosed a third of a mile motorcycle track. Several thousand women were scattered among the spectators, which included large delegations of boxing enthusiasts from as far west as Chicago and Cleveland and below Washington into the South. Gibbons was the favorite in the wagering at odds ranging from 8 to 5 to 2 to 1, and while no large sums were staked there were hundreds of bets, so great was the interest in and differences of opinion regarding the outcome of the bout.

The official announcer introduced an innovation when he fired several shots from a pistol in order to silence the vast throng before attempting to make announcements regarding the weight and condition of the bout. A purse of $25,000 was divided, $17,500 to McFarland and $15,000 to Gibbons, neither of whom was damaged to any great extent or in serious danger of a knockout during the ten round engagement.

McFarland was first to reach the ring. He climbed through the ropes at 10:40. Gibbons followed two minutes later. The ringside weights of the men were announced as McFarland 162, Gibbons 155. Each of them had weighed in under 147 at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Both wore bandages on their hands. McFarland wore green trunks and Gibbons had on short white running trunks.

They shook hands at 10:44 and Billy John, the referee, called them to the center of the ring for final instructions. The fight began at 10:44. Round One. They fiddled for a moment. Gibbons landed light left to Packey's face, after some sparring. Gibbons hooked a right to Packey's head. Gibbons sent a light left followed with a light left to body. Packey reaching the body twice. Gibbons hooked right to the head and after a rapid exchange of body blows Packey landed in the face with his right. At close quarters there were rapid exchanges to the body and head with Gibbons doing the more damage. It was rapid work all through the round with Gibbons having a shade the better of it.

MANY CHANGES IN FOOTBALL RULES THIS SEASON

The Principal and Most Important Ones Found in the Following Articles.

With the opening of the colleges, normal schools and high schools throughout the state Monday morning the football activities will take a brace and from this time on it will hold the boards until the world series baseball games are played in October, and from that time on until the end of the season.

At present West Virginia University has thirty-five gridiron warriors at Chateau, in the Cheat mountains, three miles from Morgantown. West Virginia Wesleyan College has a large squad in camp at Terra Alta and the Fairmont normal school which opened this week has its men down to hard work.

Cochran Frank Arnett, of the Washington-Irving high school will issue a call Monday for candidates for the team and it is expected that work will start Tuesday evening.

It might be of interest to the football fans and likewise the players to know that several changes have been made in the rules during the summer. Alterations in Rules.

The principal alterations in the playing rules for the season of 1915 are as follows:

Interferers will no longer be permitted to knock down the secondary defense after the whistle blows, nor will the defense either be permitted to run into a man after the whistle blows.

The presence of a field judge has been made obligatory, and the watch has been taken away from the line-man and given to the field judge so as to make it possible for the line-man to be more observant of all the matters coming within his province, like the above, and "beating" the starting signal.

No longer will throwing the ball out of bounds be substituted by teams for a kick, for a forward pass going out of bounds on the fly, whether it touches a man or not, is now ruled as an incomplete forward pass.

The flogging of substitutes in the last period has been stopped and no re-substitution will be allowed except at the beginning of the period.

The protection of the full back has been somewhat altered. The rule has been divided into two parts—running.
